

MINISTRY NEWS

FROM THE FOUNDER

Every year, it seems like the months go by faster. Here we are in the first week of December, looking forward to another Christmas and a new year ahead. There is so much to thank God for. He has kept His hand on us for good and provided for the ministry in Haiti in ways we couldn't have anticipated.

The school at our new property is now finished, and the kids will be resuming to classes soon. Routine is a gift at this point. After so much uncertainty over the past months, everyone is looking forward to a bit of normalcy.

I'm also excited to share that we have boxes coming to the kids for Christmas. Grace Missionary Church of Milford, NE, has organized a drive to provide supplies and basic necessities that will help our children as they settle into their new location. I'm truly thankful for their generosity. I anticipate that this Christmas will be more peaceful for Poyis and the kids than last year, since they're no longer in a hostile environment near Port-au-Prince. You can join me in praying that this season is a sweet and restful time for them.

The new year is bringing some exciting opportunities as well. Starting in January, we'll be sending teams to Haiti again. We have two trips scheduled for January already, and we'll be making plans for more teams in the near future. I can't wait to see what God has in store.

This Christmas season, I'm thanking the Lord for each of you. I believe God works powerfully through the faithfulness of His people, and your support is a picture of that reality.

In His Grip,

Greg

Watch FOUND

Our short film, FOUND, is available for viewing on our website! FOUND tells the story of Natascha, a Haitian child who is sold into slavery before ultimately finding a home at the Connect 2 Ministries Children's Homes.

This short film sheds light on the harsh reality faced by countless children who are thrust into slavery, providing a call to action against the injustice of child exploitation. As Christians especially, it is an invitation to put feet to our faith.

FROM THE FOUNDER

The country of Haiti is facing uncertainty. The Haitian government has contracted Erik Prince to help combat gang violence, and this decision has brought international attention to the situation in the country. At the same time, many Haitians who have been living in the U.S. are being sent back to Haiti. I'm sure that returning to the country amidst instability and fear is an added strain in an already challenging situation. People know that the darkness is real. They see the problems in their nation, and they have little hope of things improving.

But God. In the middle of this darkness, the light of the gospel shines brighter than ever. We're seeing it firsthand. Pastor Poyis and the kids are pressing forward, being the hands and feet of Jesus to people around them, many of whom are completely disoriented and discouraged. In fact, Pastor Poyis and the kids recently celebrated the ten year anniversary of Mission Eglise Chrétienne Redemptrice, holding a service on Haiti's

DECEMBER PRAYER REQUESTS

Opportunities to further develop our vocational training program. Our goal is to equip our children for adult life.

Wisdom for our staff, both in the US and in Haiti, in navigating ongoing strife in the country.

Opportunities to help rebuild families. Our desire is to reattach unsettled people to the church.

Praise God for providing a safe location where Pastor Poyis and the kids can live.

"Seek the Lord and His strength; seek His presence continually!"
